

Enjoy these winter-themed titles

Bright Winter Night

by Alli Brydon

Picture Book. A group of woodland creatures use items found on the forest floor to build something special together, then race off to catch a glimpse of one of nature's most astounding wonders.

Dog Driven

by Terry Lynn Johnson

Juvenile Fiction. A talented musher signs up for a dangerous commemorative race in the Canadian wilderness to prove herself while raising awareness of the disease that is costing her and her sister their sight.

The Girl Who Speaks Bear

by Sophie Anderson

Juvenile Fiction. Longing to know her true identity after being discovered in a bear cave as a baby, Yanka embarks on a journey that forces her to leave a loving foster home in search of a place where she truly belongs.

El Guardián de la Luna

by Zosienka

Picture Book. Polar bear Emile takes his new job of "moon keeper" very seriously. He does his best to keep watch over the moon and ensure that it can shine its light.

Odd and the Frost Giants

by Neil Gaiman

Juvenile Fiction. Odd has had some terrible luck, but it's about to change when he rescues a bear in this brilliantly inventive short novel inspired by traditional Norse mythology.

Sea Bear: A Journey for Survival

by Lindsay Moore

Picture Book. After months of hunting, paddling, and resting on ice floes, summer ends and a polar bear must swim very far to find land. Includes facts about polar bears and the effect of climate change on their environment.

The Sea in Winter

by Christine Day

Juvenile Fiction. After an injury sidelines her dreams of becoming a ballet star, Maisie is not excited for her blended family's midwinter road trip along the coast, near the Makah community where her mother grew up.

Snow Treasure

by Marie McSwigan

Juvenile Fiction. Based on a true story, this heroic tale, set in Norway during World War II, follows a group of courageous schoolchildren who outwit the invading Nazis by sledding 13 tons of gold bricks down the mountain to a waiting ship.

The Unicorn in the Barn

by Jacqueline K. Ogburn

Juvenile Fiction. Spotting a shimmering deer in the woods, Eric tracks down the creature and makes the life-changing discovery it is an injured unicorn in the care of a veterinarian neighbor and her daughter.

Winter Tales: Stories and Folktales From Around the World

by Dawn Casey

Folktales. Collecting wintry tales from around the world, this fully illustrated treasury celebrates diverse heritage and cultural storytelling.

Winterhouse

by Ben Guterson

Juvenile Fiction. Elizabeth Somers is shipped away by her malevolent guardians to a mysterious hotel, where she discovers a magic book of puzzles with ties to her host's sinister family and a fateful curse.

Wolf in the Snow

by Matthew Cordell

Picture Book. When a wolf cub and little girl are lost in a snowstorm they must find their way home.

The County Library
8030 S 1825 W
West Jordan, Utah 84088
801.943.4636
thecountylibrary.org